

MEET YOUR 2022 OSHKOSH AREA UNITED WAY COMMUNITY GIVING CAMPAIGN LEADERSHIP TEAM

The challenges in our community are real. 40% of Oshkosh area residents are struggling to meet their basic needs. With your support, Oshkosh Area United Way (OAOW) leads the charge to improving access to services for EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION, MENTAL HEALTH, and STEPS TO A LIVING WAGE for the residents of Oshkosh and the surrounding area. Your gift supports over 40 area programs and services that are proven to have a high impact change the lives of our friends, family, neighbors, and co-workers...our community. It only takes one person to start a movement. It takes a community to make a change.

OAOW President & CEO

Beth Oswald joins the OAOW as the president and CEO after serving as the executive director of Christine Ann Domestic Abuse Services for the past six years. She has lived in Oshkosh most of her life and is a graduate of both Fox Valley Technical College and the University of Oshkosh.

Beth has a successful history of fundraising and optimizing financial operations. Oswald also brings a commitment to cultivating conversations and collaboration that mobilizes partners, government entities, and funders to make a greater impact on Oshkosh and the surrounding area.

"I've been an advocate for the health and safety of our residents, so I have a huge interest in seeing this organization succeed. We need our neighbor's help to invest in our community and I look forward to helping us achieve that goal. I'm excited about this new opportunity and look forward to working with my team to bring positive change to the lives of individuals and families in our area."

— Beth Oswald, OAOW President & CEO
